

Dear David:

Charles has left us.

He was very ill for a year, but hoped that he could beat the illness.

No doctor could find the nature of his lung-infection in spite of three biopsies.

You can imagine how much I miss him.

I hope you three are well. When you come to California, please, visit us.

Charlotte